DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference character(s) not mentioned in the description: 13. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d), or amendment to the specification to add the reference character(s) in the description in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(b) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: Figures 3A, 3B, and 3C are referred to in the specification as Figures 7A, 7B, and 7C, respectively. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP 10-314523. JP 10-314523 teaches a method of selectively plugging the openings of a honeycomb structure by masking the openings, immersing the masked end in a slurry, and pressing the structure down, after which the structure is removed from the slurry and fired.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP 10-314523 in view of Bonzo (U.S. Patent No. 4,557,773). JP 10-314523 teaches a method of selectively plugging the openings of a honeycomb structure by masking the openings, immersing the masked end in a slurry, and pressing the structure down. JP 10-314523 does not teach the step of removing the excess slurry from the end of the structure. However, Bonzo teaches excess slurry should be wiped away from the ends of honeycomb structure when selectively plugging openings. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to apply the cleaning method of Bonzo to the plugging method of JP 10-314523 in order to maintain the exterior shape of the honeycomb structure.

Regarding claims 2, 4, and 6, Bonzo teaches that the excess slurry may be scraped away while the openings are being plugged.

Regarding claim 3, JP 10-314523 teaches that the structure should be fired to bond the plugging material to the cell walls.

Regarding claim 5, Bonzo teaches that the slurry should be removed before firing.
